This year the Parish Council wish to invite the village community to hear about the valuable work undertaken by Andrew Tyrie MP. John Smith, Environment Agency, will give an update on the work of the agency in the local area. An update will also be provided on work of the Environment Working Party over the last six months and their aims for the next year. Residents will have the opportunity to raise questions on these matters and any other issues that they would like the Parish Council to consider.
